CRIMINAL CASES PLACED ON DOCKET FOR TODAY

Judge H. L. Preston has designated Friday afternoon of each week as the time for hearing pleas, etc., in criminal cases, of which there are expected to be many as soon as the local officials of the county begin working under the Wright act. This afternoon five matters will be called.

The case of the People vs. Ghiorso et al will come up at that time. There are two complaints, one charging the eight defendants with having killed a doe and the other with having killed a fawn. The defendants were tried in the justice court of Little Lake township and found guilty. Judge Whitney then imposed fines aggregating $810 against the eight defendants on the two counts. The defendants will argue tomorrow to be permitted to appeal their case to the superior court, alleging prejudicial error in the justice court.

The case of the People vs. Mancini, who was arrested at Albion charged with operating a blind pig, will also be called and the defendant, who was held by the justice court, will be called on to enter his plea of guilty or not guilty.

Another blind pig case which will come up is that of the People vs. Zanoni. He will be charged with maintaining a place for the sale of intoxicating liquors at Wendling.

A. Mittone, who had his car searched and a quantity of liquor taken therefrom by the sheriff some time ago, and who argued for the return of the liquor on the ground that it had been taken without a search warrant, has had his plea denied and will have to stand trial. He will appear for arraignment this afternoon.

The case of the People vs. McNeil will also come before the court, the defendant having been held on a charge of seduction. McNeil is the individual who enticed Irma Smith away from home. He is twenty years of age, while the girl is 17. He will be permitted to plead today.

ZANONI BOYS PLEAD; ARE GIVEN PROBATION

The two Zanoni boys, 17-year-old twins, of Wendling, who were arrested with their father the latter part of last week by Sheriff Byrnes and Deputy Ward Reise on a charge of transporting intoxicating liquor, came before Judge Preston, sitting as judge of the juvenile court, last Friday. The boys when arraigned stated that they wished to plead guilty. However, when put in the stand to be questioned, they promptly attempted to lie out of the charge against them. Judge Preston thereupon sent them back to jail after a sound lecture, to think the matter over.

Wednesday they were again brought into court and told a story that tallied with that of the officers. The judge suspended a jail sentence pending their good behavior and put them on probation until they are 21. In the meantime they are to be under the charge of Probation Officer Hurley and are to pay a fine of $100 each, paying $5 each per month on the fine out of their earnings.

FORMER UKIAH BOY WINS ENGLISH BRIDE

Local friends will be interested in the marriage of Miss Victoria Elizabeth Garnette, of Blackpool, England, and Mr. Paul Gibson, formerly of this place which took place at Mountain View, California, on Tuesday evening, November 21. The bride is a beautiful and charming young lady of a decidedly English type, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnette, of Blackpool, England, and the groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gibson, who formerly resided here, and is a nephew of Undersheriff Billy Gibson, and has numerous other relatievs here. The wedding of the happy pair is the culmination of a pretty romance which begun in England, where the young man was on furlough, while serving in the world war. After three years with the Canadian army in France, he returned to Canada, then his home, afterward coming to Ukiah to reside but not until he and the young lady of his choice had "plighted their troth" and he had won her promise to join him in "the land of sunshine and flowers," when he should have prepared the "home nest" for her. The bride made the long journey from Blackpool to Sacramento in sixteen days and was met by her fiance. The wedding was solemnized in the Advertist Church at Mountain View by the Rev. W. F. Knox, general treasurer of that denomination. The bride was gowned in a lovely robe of ivory satin, cut on straight lines, and trimmed in hand embroidery. She wore a long veil, held in place by orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, and white rose buds. Her two attendants were dressed in pink satin and carried pink carnations.

After a wedding dinner at the home of the groom's parents, the couple departed on a honeymoon trip in the north, including Ukiah in their itinerary, and on their return will occupy apartments in Mountain View.

Hosts of friends will join in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

Mrs. G. A. Martin entertained at dinner last Friday evening, in honor of the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Pierce Stipp are spending a fortnight in San Francisco.

SEAWELL'S ELECTION SAFE; REPORT OF DEFEAT FALSE

A scarehead on the edition of the San Francisco Chronicle circulated here stated yesterday morning that Judge Emmett Seawell, of Sonoma county, had been nosed out of his reported victory in the fight for the supreme bench by Judge Sloane of Los Angeles.

Sloane's majority was said to be 8,000 votes.

A late report from the state republican chairman, Albert E. Boynton, is to the effect that the figures giving Sloane the victory did not contain the late returns from Alameda, Mariposa, Amador and Glenn counties. He stated that with these returns Seawell's victory was assured and that the totals as first announced were not substantially altered.

The erroneous report caused a great deal of concern to Mendocino county friends of Judge Seawell.

Mrs. Anna Cranz returned Monday evening from a two months' visit in the bay section.

UKIAH REALTY BOARD ORGANIZED SATURDAY

A realty board was organized in this city last Saturday following a banquet at the Palace hotel, when some twenty-five guests were addressed by Glenn D. Williman, secretary and managing director of the California Real Estate Association, who explained the purpose of the state association to place the real estate business on a high ethical basis, guaranteeing mutual assistance to the buyer as well as the seller, and also to assist the prospective buyer in locating on the sort of land they might be seeking. He made quite obvious to the representatives of the different lines of business the mutual benefit that would accrue from the establishment of a Realty Board in Ukiah. Individual expressions were called for and the meeting resolved itself into a general discussion. There was not a dissenting voice and every real estate dealer present not already affiliated with the State Association signed an application blank, thus assuring the success of the Ukiah Realty Board.

Mr. Williman was assisted by John F. Summers, of Santa Rosa, regional director of the California real estate commission.

The local board organized by electing J. A. Waldteufel president, Hy Nelson, of Willits, vice-president, and Curtis A. Miller secretary and treasurer.

LIVESTOCK NEWS MARKET REPORT

The market report issued by the federal and state livestock bureou last Tuesday is as follows:

CATTLE: A slow dressed market coupled with a plentiful supply of stock on the hoof has resulted in a sluggish, inactive steer market during the last week with prices on medium qualified kinds barely steady with a week ago today. However, strictly fat bullocks, due to their scarcity, have maintained fully steady values. A few loads of Colorado steers have shown a cost around $8.00 off cars in San Francisco but the bulk of arrivals were of medium grade and have been absorbed within a price range of from $7.25 to $7.75. Quality considered, these arrivals reflect an easier market than a week ago today. Cows are selling steady with last week with a spread of $5.75 to $6.00 taking the bulk of fat stock and medium kinds going mostly from $5.25 to $5.50.

The few offerings during the last week of California steers sold on a steady basis. A few shipments have been bought for early December delivery from $6.50 to $7.00 in the country, reflecting a steady market.

A load of 1040 pound Monterey county steers brought $6.50 at the ranch. Cows in the same shipment brought $4.50. A load of cows weighing 1100 also turned at this price at the ranch in Sierra county.

CALVES: Heavy receipts of calves at San Francisco has resulted in lowering values around 25 cents over a week ago. Choice light weights are cashing around $8.00 off cars here as compared with $8.25 a week ago today. The bulk of 150-250 pounders are clearing from $7.75 to $7.85. 250-300 pound kinds are turning mostly at $7.25.

HOGS: Despite the sharp advance at the river markets hog values have met a price decline the first two days of this week due largely to a sluggish demand for the dressed product and the arrival of heavy purchases made on the low eastern markets last week.

The bulk of 150-200 pound California grain-feds are cashing around $10.50 to $10.75 with an occasional sale of choice light weights reaching $11.00. While several loads at the farm bureau sales last week cleared $10.20 at shipping point the bulk of 160 to 200 pound weights were absorbed within a price ranging of $9.80 to $10.10, and late in the week a load of 190 lb. weights and also a load of 163 pounders turned at $9.65 and a load weighing 181 went at $9.60.

SHEEP and LAMBS: A lethargic dressed market during the last week has resulted in a sluggish demand for stock on hoof but values have remained steady with last week's sales as reflected by a few arrivals of good quality lambs weighing about 80 pounds, and cashing around $13.75 off cars. Practically no ewes or wethers are arriving.

MR. AND MRS. GLENN WELLS.

Twelve years of continuous platform work have made Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wells one of the leading two-person attractions on the Lyceum platform. In the art of musical and dramatic sketches they have perfected themselves under the best obtainable masters and are now launching into a more pretentious field. They will present "Atonement," written especially for them by Herbert Thomas, the great playwright.

Entertainment is the keynote of the programs given by Mr. and Mrs. Wells.

MR. AND MRS. GLENN WELLS.

Both are splendid singers and players, capable of presenting an exclusive musical program. In addition to musical talent, they possess real histrionic power and make their dramatic sketches real artistic gems.

Their program embraces baritone and soprano solos, vocal duets, story-telling, pianologs, dramatic, humorous and musical sketches which are given with appropriate costumes. If a program is to be given in a church or auditorium without suitable platform facilities for the plays, a thoroughly enjoyable evening of music, readings, etc., can be given.

SMILE AND HUSTLE

WHEN your plans go all awry,
Smile and hustle.
Not a bit of use to cry.
Smile and hustle.
Waste of time to fret and scold;
Brace, and get another hold;
Meet the future brave and bold—
Smile and hustle.

Some big scheme wound up in wreck?
Smile and hustle.
Bad luck smite you in the neck?
Smile and hustle.
Be a man among big men,
Grab a hold and try again,
Spit upon your hands, and then
Smile and hustle.

When a brave man hits the bumps—
Smile and hustle.
Then is when he up and humps,
Smile and hustle.
Waste of time to weep and wail,
Just forget that small word "fail."
Don't moon 'round till you go stale—
Smile and hustle.

Everybody has bad luck.
Smile and hustle.
That's the time to show your pluck.
Smile and hustle.
Say, "Hard luck, good-by to you,"
Start off on a tack that's new,
Keep straight on with purpose true,
Smile and hustle.

The Friendly Path

SIN AND CITIES

DON'T blame sin on the cities.

No community is ever better than the people within it. If the people are honest, God-fearing, law-abiding and live up to the teachings of their churches, regardless of denomination, they'll find little cause for complaint no matter where they live. But when they know what is right and don't do it or don't insist on others following the best pathway, they are likely to be disgruntled with conditions which they bring upon themselves.

We know a great deal about most of the big cities, but we know just as much of the small towns and open country, and proportionately, we believe, there is no difference in the volume of wrong-doing. And we confidently believe that if people hailing from the small towns and country would be as devout to the cause of right as they claim to be when they come into large communities, the blotches on cities' reputations would be much fewer than they are.

It is true that there are many more amusements and inducements in big towns which are likely to divert newcomers' attention from church work and home life. But none of these will lead people from the proper pathway unless they are willing to be led. Even commercialized amusements on the Sabbath will have no harmful effects on those who know they are wrong, if they wish conscientiously to follow the safe pathway.

Remove from every big city the sinners who rush in from small places for hiding and the police and uplift workers would find little work necessary in order to preserve the standards of morality and honesty which are so greatly to be desired.

Able ministers, fine churches, educational opportunities, science, invention and commercial and industrial progress of the cities are the kind of inspirations which should make the world in general more happy, comfortable and thankful to God.

WHAT TO EAT

DISHES for luncheon that are not too filling will be found in the following:

Ham and Noodles.

Butter an earthen baking dish, put into the bottom a layer of cooked noodles, add a layer of cold boiled ham cut into small bits, then another layer of noodles. Repeat until the dish is full. Beat one egg, add one cupful of milk and pour into the dish. Cover with crumbs, dot with butter and bake in a moderate oven.

Baked Sausages With Rice.

Cut pork sausages into thin slices. Butter a baking dish and fill with cold boiled rice. Moisten the rice with water in which beef extract has been dissolved. Spread the sliced sausages over the rice and bake in a hot oven until the slices are crisp.

Baked Eggs With Cheese.

Make toast of rounds of bread which have been cut nearly through with a smaller cutter and the center thus made hollowed out. Mix grated cheese with cream and spread over the toast. Arrange on a platter, break an egg in each depression, sprinkle with seasonings and cheese, dot with butter and set into the oven in a dripping pan of hot water. Bake until the eggs are set.

Pimiento and Cheese Roast.

Put three pimientoes and two cupfuls of cooked Lima beans through the meat chopper with one-fourth of a pound of cream cheese. Mix well, add enough bread crumbs to form into a roll and bake 20 minutes. Baste frequently with water and butter. Serve with bacon gravy or tomato sauce.

Bordeaux Pudding.

Cut a sponge cake into three layers, spread with jam, put together, cover with sweetened and flavored whipped cream and sprinkle with chopped nuts. Serve with cream, whipped or plain.

Graham Gems.

Take one cupful each of sour milk and graham flour, one-half teaspoonful of soda, a little salt, one egg, well beaten, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and three of shortening. Bake in well-greased gem pans.

Excellent German "Bull."

It seems there is a German "bull" as well as an Irish. Here is a specimen from the crown prince's memoirs: Von Bethmann-Hollwegg remarks to Herr Hallin of the Hamburg-American: "I only wish I were dead." And Herr Hallin replies: "I dare say you do. No doubt it would suit you admirably to lie in your coffin all day and watch other people toiling and worrying."

Farm Convention to Turn Light on Late Freight Traffic Difficulties

Ukiah valley farmers and orchardists are vitally interested in the 55th annual Farmers and Fruit Growers' convention which will be held in Sacramento, December 12, 13 and 14. The county horticultural commissioners and the nurserymen also will hold their annual meetings in conjunction with the Farmers and Fruit Growers' convention.

Plans are being laid to make this convention the biggest and most attractive ever held in California. The main subject for discussion will be the car shortage situation, and ways and means for remedying the conditions which have prevailed during the past year. At least one commissioner from the Interstate Commerce Commission will be present to confer with California growers and shippers, and in addition, delegates appointed by the governors of the western states also will be in attendance, for the purpose of effecting a joint organization with California growers and shippers, to treat with the Interstate Commerce Commission on transportation policies affecting Pacific coast interests.

When shippers are forced to adopt methods to obtain cars for their growers which can hardly be considered honest or fair, it is high time that some remedy be found to assure an adequate supply of cars to move California's fruit crop.

Refrigerator cars were given up early in the season as hopeless and this, in spite of priority orders issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Refrigerator cars were simply not returned fast enough to be of any material help, box and stock cars were used in their place, and even these fell far short of the demand.

An interesting chapter was added to our transportation problem in the methods used to obtain cars. To outwit rival companies, cars were ordered for the most out-of-the-way sidings, rusted from long disuse, many miles from the nearest vineyards. Arrangements were made at holdup prices with several business firms to hold cars consigned to them for fruit shippers. It was a common sight to see such commodities as potatoes, coal, etc., being trucked out of a car while grapes were being loaded as fast as the car was emptied

Shipping facilities were so inadequate that if a car was found in some inaccessible location fruit shippers were glad of the opporunity to load the car with any commodity with ashes or empty boxes, consign the car to themselves at their packing sheds and pay the freight. Much energy and time was spent by the fruit shippers following switch engines, watching for an opportunity to appropriate a car.

A remedy will be sought to change these conditions at the 55th convention of Farmers and Fruit Growers to be held in Sacramento December 12, 13 and 14. No individual or single group of interests are to blame for these conditions, but it is obviously the duty of California's growers, shippers and carriers to fix the responsibility of such conditions. It is expected that in the discussions there will be much "buck passing," but out of the wordy battles, charges and counter-charges, will evolve some means of providing transportation for the prompt and efficient movement of California's perishable fruits.

MRS. PERLE CRAWFORD HOSTESS TO KOSMOS

The beautiful home of Mrs. Perle Crawford was the scene of a very enjoyable afternoon Thursday, given by the members of the Kosmos club.

The president, Mrs. P. J. Boring, presided, and many things of interest were brought before the club. The program was under the direction of the dramatic section with Mrs. J. J. Mathews chairman, but being unable to attend, was placed in the hands of Mrs. Chris Bruns. Miss Margaret Crawford, young daughter of the hostess, gave a piano number "The Spinning Song" by Albert Ellmenreich; Mrs. C. N. Cox gave a very interesting review and readings from one of Edgar Guests's book of poems; Mrs. Harold Holliday in a piano number "Sounds of Spring" by Hermann Wendzel; Mrs. Chris Bruns, who read from the book of poems by the late Martha L. Hoffman, one of Mendocino county's most talented writers, "The Legend of Lover's Leap" or better known by the name of "Squaw Rock," near Cloverdale. Many will remember the old Indian legend that gave this stern old rock its name. The Misses Laura and Frances Boring presented two musical numbers. First a musical recitation "Home" from Edgar Guest, with piano accompaniment of "Home Sweet Home" and a dance number and chant "I Wish I Knew" with Miss Laura as dancer and Miss Frances at the piano. Miss Elsie Stipp closed the program by reading a Thanksgiving prayer.

The Crawford home was artistically decorated in hollyberries and potted plants. A delicious tea service followed the program with Mrs. Frank Bertsch and Mrs. Martin Sloper assistant hostesses. Several guests were present to enjoy the afternoon and among them was Mrs. I. M. Brazier, president of the Saturday Afternoon Club, who in her gracious manner gave a few remarks at the close of the meeting.

NEWS NOTES FROM ANDERSON

ANDERSON VALLEY, Nov. 28.—Albert Tarwater, the wideawake garage man and Chevrolet car dealer, has been a busy man this last week selling new cars. He brought over three from Ukiah this week and disposed of one to Don Vanzandt, one to Will Cureton and the other to another party.

Miss Violet Sundquist, of Albion, was a visitor in Boonville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Slotte, of Camp 11, are also visitors to this section of the county.

Will Cureton made a business visit to Ukiah last Friday.

B. F. Brown, principal of the high school, wore a broad grin the last few days. Why? Because his high school team beat the Cloverdale high school basketball team on Friday evening and on Saturday his wife presented him with a new baby girl.

Harold St. John and Leo Prather have returned from a short visit to Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Banks have moved from Albion to Ukiah, where Ernest will try ranching for a while.

On Friday evening, November 24, full of confidence in their victory, Cloverdale's "never been beaten" high school basketball team journeyed to Boonville and went down to defeat to the tune of 28 to 17.

The game was one of the best played here for a long time, each team fighting to a finish. The local team averaging about the same in size and weight as the Cloverdale team.

Anderson valley lineup is: G. Ginochio, H. Cureton, guards; Merrill Ingram, center; Geo. Bennett, Marion Prather, forwards; Oliver Cureton, Chas. Bennett, subs.

The girls of both schools also had a game, Cloverdale winning by 12 to 11.

Ruby Farrer is still unable to play.

A game will be played with Hopland on December 8.

Atty. G. E. Redwine was a visitor to Fort Bragg the latter part of last week, where he went on business connected with his duties as court commissioner.

COMMUNICATED

ANDERSON VALLEY, November 29.—At the cross roads of the Boonville and Point Arena roads, one time lived twin brothers, Scott and Taylor————, whenever there was a man in the community who was a traitor to his country his neighbor and himself they would always call him a "microbe."

The shame is to Anderson and also to Ukiah that they allow to exist in their communities one of the microbes and more shame to the editor of the Santa Rosa Press Democrat, who through the columns of his paper allowed the insult to be printed aimed at the residents of Anderson valley and communicated from Ukiah by one of these nameless insects.

Who is it, when the harvest is over, the fruit crop taken care of, the wool is clipped and shipped and the bankroll of the Anderson valley farmer is growing, stands with outstretched arm to welcome the people of Anderson valley who come by the dozens to Santa Rosa and exchange their hard-earned capital for food and clothing for winter; none other than the people of Santa Rosa and they should resent the attack on the people of this valley, as do the people themselves.

Leave Ukiah on a peaceful Sunday morn and travel by way of Anderson valley down through Navarro along the new highway to the mouth of the Navarro river and if you are a good liberal minded citizen go home and make a report of your trip and give credit where credit is due.

Do not expect to find such as the Press Democrat records, the caveman stalking the roads and cow trails into the valley with clubs and other instruments of warfare such as the stone ax, the tomahawk, the bow and arrow and the old flintlock firearm.

You will probably expect to meet the women walking barefooted to church with their babies strapped to their backs as in ancient times.

See in imagination our boys and girls marching up and down the streets cursing and swearing, useing vile, vulgar and obscene language, insulting everyone with whom they come in contact, throwing rocks at houses, stealing chickens, etc.

Search the record of our high school. Note the number of its teachers, graduates direct from the school, count the students enrolled in the different universities and normals of the state and we defy competition in any school of its size to be found anywhere.

In his false statement this microbe says in regard to the trial between L. L. Hopkins and Harold St. John that Harold was brought to Ukiah, tried before a jury and acquitted. Harold St. John was never taken to Ukiah, but was tried in Farrer's hall, Boonville, before the Hon. Frank Brown and after being given a fair trial before a jury was declared "not guilty."

The jury consisted of the following: Mrs. Amanda Tarwater, Mrs. Jessie McCarty, Geo. Estes, Earl Prather, Tom Ruddock, Mart Dutro, Roy Whipple, Will Dutro, Lester Day, Marvin Dutro, Monte Bloyd. The reason it was hard to find a jury in Anderson valley was because the people thonght the trial should never have been allowed to come into court and should have been dismissed without the trouble of a jury.

The seventeen sons of the oldest families consisted of about seventeen boys and girls between the ages of eight and eighteen years who on hallowe'en took probably two small gates from their hinges removed a large gate for Arthur Johnson and after a short time putting it back in its place, building a bonfire by the side of the road, ringing the church bells and putting an old cart up on the roof of Albert Tarwater's garage and all this wild escapade happening between the hours of 8:30 and 9 o'clock in the evening. Surely a cause for a feud.

Before Ukiah believes all the statements of this reporter from their city let him turn back the leaves of history to pow-wow time in Ukiah. Who was there more willingly donated labor and money than the residents of Anderson valley and who turned out en-masse and helped to make the pow-wow such a success? Anderson valley has always been the mark for slurs and ridicule from certain parts of the county and its residents, as a whole, very bitterly resent the insults thrown at them through such a very small medium, the columns of the Santa Rosa Press Democrat and there is times when patience ceases to be a virtue.

Among our oldest settlers left in Anderson valley honored by all and respected and loved by their children, grand children and great grand children we find: Grandma McAbee, aged 91, Mrs. Susan Ornbaun, Mrs. Mary A. McGimsey, Lanny Witherell and Mrs. A. G. Ruddock.

We wish to remind that microbe with his vivid imagination of feuds and bloody times ahead that there is only one in sight and that is: if the Press Democrat will kindly reveal his name, the first visit he makes to Anderson valley he sure will be treated to a reception such as this wild hill country never witnessed. Given a ride on an auto, split out by one of the old rail splitters of ancient Anderson valley, treated to a good dressing of tar and adorned with a coat of mail, produced from the contents of a pillow donated by a thrifty Anderson valley housewife, he will find out what the Anderson valley people think of one of these feud microbes.

The ladies of St. John's M. E. Church will hold a sale on Saturday, December 9 at the J. W. Eversole furniture store in North State St. Cooked food, aprons and fancy work may be purchased at reasonable prices. 9-

Mrs. Budd Wilson, nee Veva Parker, is up from her Petaluma home for a week end visit with her mother, Mrs. Mamie Parker.

E. P. Rasmussen, of Comptche, motored over to Ukiah Wednesday afternoon on a short business visit.

Miss Madge Smith is here from San Francisco for a visit with her brother, County Treasurer D. C. Smith, and wife.

L. L. Hopkins and wife motored over from Boonville the first of the week. They have sold their home in Anderson valley and will return to Ukiah to live.

Old Soldier's Long Walk.

An eighty-year-old Civil war veteran has just completed a hike of 1,000 miles from Minneapolis, Minn., to Chattanooga, Tenn. He was a member of Company C, Sixty-fourth Ohio infantry and had revisited Chattanooga in 1918 at the time of an encampment, but always had a desire to return and again look over the battlefields on which he fought. He left on his jaunt in September and arrived in Chattanooga in October. He spent two weeks there visiting the battlefields and then walked an additional one hundred miles to Atlanta, Ga. He went from Atlanta to Louisville, Ky., completing his walk of 1,000 miles.

Bobcat Tackled Wrong Man.

A Ludlow (Vt.) man, J. Sheehan, has earned the distinction of being the first man in the district to kill a bobcat with his bare hands. He and a companion were climbing a mountain trail near Ludlow when a bobcat disputed the right of way. As it sprang at the men, Sheehan gripped its throat. His hands were badly lacerated by the cat's claws, but he held on until it was dead. Local hunters say this is the first instance in their experience of a bobcat attacking a man.

ANNUAL REPORT OF UKIAH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Ukiah Chamber of Commerce at the time of its reorganization one year ago, pledged its membership that it would put forth its best efforts to do those things which the membrship desired done for the upbuilding and betterment of local civic and commercial conditions. Members were invited to attend group meetings at which their personal ideas and suggestions along this line were invited. These suggestions were written down and signed by the members individually and later, classified and used in formulating a Program of Work for the organization to undertake. The suggestions as to the community needs most popular were given first consideration and constitute what has been designated as the Major Program.

The following report is made according to the program of work as adopted by the members.

PLANK I—SCHOOLS

Promote the building of new schools, and the establishment of a Junior College, and investigate the feasibility of consolidation of rural and town schools.

RESULTS.

The new $80,000 elementary school building now nearing completion stands as a monument to the intelligence and public-spiritedness of the citizens of Ukiah who voted by an overwhelming majority the bond issue submitted to them last March. The Chamber of Commerce took an active part in the creating and stimulating of interest in behalf of the bond issue among the voters. Twenty-one loyal women served as a committee to register voters and these same women were formed into precinct committees and worked systematically on election day to bring out the voters to the polls. The fact that almost 100 per cent. more votes were cast in this election than in any preceding election, which resulted in the carrying of the issue by a seven to one majority, indicates the effectiveness of this organized effort to obtain the modern, up-to-date, safe and sanitary school building for the children of Ukiah.

The completion of the new school building at Ukiah will afford the opportunity to consolidate several of the rural schools in the event such a consolidation may be decided upon later, as there will be an abundance of room with all modern facilities and conveniences.

One consolidation of rural schools has been effected this year in Round Valley, two rural schools having been consolidated with the Covelo school. Bonds for a new $40,000 school building at Covelo have been voted.

Nothing definite in the way of obtaining the establishment of a Junior College in Ukiah has been attempted thus far. An investigation of the situation as it exsists indicates that the time for the agitation of a Junior College project is not propitious, owing to the fact that the enrollment from a numerical standpoint is inadequate to insure required attendance.

PLANK II—STREETS AND ROADS

Promote the paving of Ukiah's streets and sidewalks and building and paving of connecting highways, particularly highways south, and highway to the coast by the way of Low Gap.

RESULTS.

The Chamber of Commerce has not been unmindful of the importance of this plank in the Program of Work to the value of the community, and throughout the year has been active in giving attention to this subject. The general sentiment in the town itself is unfavorable to any increase of taxation at this time which would be occasioned by paving projects. However, the Chamber has been instrumental in the improvement of highway and rural roads, as noted below:

(a.) Through the assistance of the thirty-six civic-commercial organizations constituting the North of Bay Counties Association, the State Highway Commission was petitioned to begin the improvement of the Redwood Highway between Hopland and Ukiah this year. Also, the State Highway Commission was prevailed upon to construct all curves and turns on the highway between Willits and Ukiah, a minimum width of not less than 18 feet. Both of these petitions were acted upon favorably by the Commission.

(b.) The Chamber of Commerce also succeeded in inducing the Highway Commission to make repairs badly needed on certain sections of the highway just north of Ukiah, in time to prevent damage to fruit and grapes being hauled to Ukiah for shipment.

(c.) Prevailed upon the supervisor to make badly needed repairs to the road leading east from Redwood Valley station. Also to obtain the widening of a cut in the county road at the intersection of the highway north of Forsythe Creek which constituted a dangerous hazard to traffic.

(d.) Collaborated with Round Valley citizens in launching a campaign for the building of the National Forest road east of Round Valley.

(e.) Joined Lakeport Chamber of Commerce in petition to State Highway Commission for highway improvements in Lake county.

(f.) Sent delegates to Wendling to represent Ukiah at ceremonies incident to beginning of work on the new highway.

(g.) Obtained installation of Crossing Signal Bell at the intersection of the county road and the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, eight and a half miles north of Ukiah, through request made to the State Railroad Commission.

(h.) Sent delegation to represent Ukiah at the annual meeting of the Tahoe-Ukiah Highway Association at Upper Lake on June 12th at which the next meeting was voted to Ukiah.

i.) Authorized President to attend Oregon-California Highway meeting at Crescent City in July.

(j.) Authorized secretary to attend highway opening celebration at Cloverdale on October 21st.

(k.) Arranged banquet for business men of the Chamber of Commerce at which needed improvements to the Ukiah-Boonville road were discussed and a committee appointed to take such steps as deemed necessary to obtain cooperation of the supervisor in making such improvements.

l.) Named committee to confer with Supervisor Ford in the interest of needed repair to the Ukiah-Talmage road, with the result that early relief was promised by the supervisor.

(m.) Provided and erected large sign directing traffic to Ukiah at intersection of the Anderson Valley road and the Redwood Highway at Mountain House.

Steps will be taken in the near future to enlist the interest of the supervisors in the improvement of the county road through Low Gap to the coast.

PLANK III—PRICE SURVEY

Conduct a price survey and endeavor to stimulate trade relations.

RESULTS.

The preliminary work of assembling the multiplicity of data necessary for a comprehensive price survey has been completed and this task will be completed early in the year. Several adjacent civic-commercial organizations have agreed to cooperate with the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce in making this survey.

Ukiah business men have not been remiss in giving a thought to the value of stimulating trade relations with adjacent and rural communities. Several automobile caravans have made trips to these points at different times during the year. A comprehensive plan to stimulate better trade relations with the outlying community is now being considered by the mercantile department of the Chamber of Commerce and a committee has been appointed to work out the details of the plan.

PLANK IV—ADVERTISEMENT

Devise and institute methods of advertising Ukiah and contiguous territory.

RESULTS.

The Yo-kaya Pow-wow and Harves Festival held in Ukiah September 18th to 25th, while not strictly an exclusive advertising project was, in fact, the most stupendous publicity acitivity ever attempted in the history of the county, if not, in fact, the north of bay district. The Pow-wow, in reality, was a four-county fair, which entailed an expenditure in excess of $20,000. The initial expense of $1,000 was paid by the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce. The event was advertised throughout Mendocino, Lake, Humboldt and Sonoma counties, and the bay cities, in an intensive publicity campaign of more than four months. More than thirty newspapers participated in this publicity campaign. Special advertising stunts and features, together with bill posters, were used advantageously.

* * * *

Cooperating with the Mendocino County Chamber of Commerce and other organizations, the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce participated in the expense of producing four reels of moving picture films depicting the development, resources and scenic effectiveness of Mendocino county. These pictures, it is estimated, will be viewed by at least 12,000,000 people throughout the United States during the next few months. This method of advertising is one of the most modern and effective agencies that has been developed, and entitles Mendocino county to classification with the most progressive communities of Northern California in exploiting the natural and acquired resources and opportunities to prospective settlers.

* * * *

The Ukiah Chamber of Commerce assisted the North of Bay Counties Association in issuing 40,000 copies of an attractive three-color map and folder, beautifully illustrated, depicting the wonderful Redwood Highway, which extends from Sausalito to Ashland, Oregon. Many merchants of Ukiah are advertising the Redwood Highway on their letterheads, envelopes and stationery.

* * * *

An effective method of advertising Ukiah was developed in designing automobile banners bearing the words, "Ukiah Chamber of Commerce," which were affixed to machines that formed caravans of Ukiah boosting parties visiting adjacent communities. The biggest boosting party that went out of Ukiah during the year was the crowd of 300 that chartered a special train to Fort Bragg on August 27th. Automobile caravans also were sent to Santa Rosa, Lakeport, Upper Lake, Kelseyville, Boonville, Cloverdale and Willits. Speakers at different times were sent to other points including San Francisco and Eureka.

* * * *

Through the generous cooperation of the local press, as well as newspapers of adjacent towns, more than 4100 inches of space were given to the exploitation of Ukiah Chamber of Commerce and its activities, during the year.

* * * *

More than 2,500 copies of the Official Map and Guide of Mendocino County, prepared by the Mendocino County Chamber of Commerce were distributed and mailed out from the office of the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce to persons making application for information concerning Mendocino county. Two hundred and twenty-three letters were written in reply to persons making inquiry regarding local conditions, prices of land, commercial possibilities, etc., during the year.

* * * *

Scenic post cards of Mendocino county views were mailed to more than 200 commercial organization secretaries who attended the State Secretaries' Convention at El Centro, in February.

* * * *

Large numbers of Mendocino County Official Maps and Guides were distributed through the California Development Association headquarters in the Ferry building at San Francisco, and also from the Los Angeles Exposition Park exhibit.

PLANK V—NEW RAILROAD STATION

Endeavor to secure the erection of a new railroad station.

RESULTS.

Officials of the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce on different occasions conferred with the executive officials of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company, regarding the proposed new passenger station that is to be eventually erected on the west side of the company's tracks in Ukiah. Economic and industrial conditions prevailing during the year have undoubtedly reacted in a detrimental way to the realization of this project. However, it is hoped that the new year will develop definite and satisfactory results along this line.

PLANK VI—STREET ILLUMINATION

Study the question of better street illumination.

RESULTS.

Quite a large interest group has been developed to promote the improvement of the local street illumination system. Useful data obtained from other towns that have developed modern street illuminating systems, has been procured and will be available for future use by the local committee. There are more pressing and important improvements needed in Ukiah that will probably take precedence over this one, although it is possible that before the end of another year, steps will be taken to provide Ukiah with a modern, up-to-date street lighting system.

PLANK VII—INDUSTRIES

Investigate the possibility and assist in the securing of industries in Ukiah.

RESULTS.

Steps have been taken to interest government officials and others in conducting experiments in the treating of California black oak and tan oak to prevent checking, so that it may be used for manufacturing purposes. This section abounds in almost inexhaustible quantities of oak that is being marketed for fuel, at this time. There is a big demand for oak used by manufacturers and if proper methods to prevent checking can be devised, the result will undoubtedly prove beneficial to the development of an important new industry in this section.

It is very apparent that before Ukiah can hope to make any material headway, towards obtaining industries, the town must first improve its housing condition and transportation facilities.

Among these latter activities were the following:

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

What steps are necessary to bring about a better understanding and closer working relationship between the different community interests?

RESULTS.

Frequent meetings of large groups of citizens which opportunity is afforded by the Members' Forum, is serving admirably in promoting a better feeling and closer relationship among the citizens. It is the intention of the Chamber of Commerce to bring the members together at such meetings at least once every month, at which time subjects of common interest are presented by able speakers and general discussion of such subjects invited. Large numbers of the members attending these meetings and working on committees in the interests of such meetings has undoubtedly been productive of improving community relations.

CITY BEAUTIFICATION

What can be done to develop civic pride and encourage the beautification of the community?

RESULTS.

An important step looking to city beautification was taken in designating the lilac as the official flower of Ukiah and urging the planting in large numbers of special imported varieties of this plant procured from southern nurseries and distributed locally at actual cost by the Chamber. During the first of the year 150 plants were ordered. It is the intention to conduct annually a lilac planting campaign.

A frequent complaint made to the Chamber of unnecessary and in some instances wanton destruction of trees led to the appointment of a committee which went before the city trustees and obtained the promise of the members to lend their best assistance to the protection of shade trees.

IMPROVE SEWERAGE SYSTEM

What can be done to improve local sewerage and sanitary conditions?

RESULTS.

Early in the year a Forum meeting was arranged and speakers provided to discuss the local sewerage conditions and the need for improvement and betterment. It was shown that a large per cent of Ukiah people were without sewerage facilities and that surface closets are quite common, to the detriment of public health and sanitation.

The board of trustees ordered a survey made of the town with the idea of making an estimate as to the cost of sewering Ukiah. This estimate will be made in the near future.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE

By J. B. SANFORD,

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., November 29.—Friend Richardson addressed the California Press Association at its meeting here last week. The speech was an impressive one and was notable as the first pronouncement of the governor-elect since the election. It was distinctively Richardson and showed that the governor-elect intends to carry out the platform on which he was elected. Among the many good things he said:

"Some of you may regard our fight as finished; as a matter of fact, we have just begun to fight. We have won the first big battle, but the contest for good government in California is not yet won. We shall win it never fear, but we shall go forward with a full realization of that which confronts us.

NO DESIRE TO PUNISH ANYONE.

"I shall proceed on a line that calls neither for vengeance upon political foes nor reward for political friends. I want men and women in my administration who are capable. That is the only qualification I shall demand.

"I am not going to put doctors in lawyers' positions nor am I going to appoint plumbers to build roads. There will be no square pegs in round holes in my administration if I can help it. I know most of the good men now in state employ. I shall urge these to remain and help me in the work; the others will save me time and themselves embarrassment by resigning when I take office.

"I intend to have cooperation from top to bottom, because lack of cooperation anywhere in the state departments will cripple me in carrying out my pledges and promises.

OPPOSITION THREATENED.

"It is a great task we have set for ourselves. We find arrayed against us those political bosses who do not yet realize that they are out of a job. We are confronted by active or passive resistance from those who are entrenched in the public service and who do not want a change in method or personnel. In any great organization there are always individuals, some of them quite worthy, who travel only in ruts and grooves and routine. They offer a problem, but one which must be overcome, even if it becomes necessary to step on a few toes and injure a few feelings.

"Unfortunately we must contend, in addition, with indiyiduals and interests masquerading under false guises and behind false issues, whose object is special privilege and selfish advantage. As you know, I am not inclined to undue belligerency, but if such as these are looking for a fight they will find one at Sacramento during my incumbency.

JOB HUNTERS ELIMINATED.

"I have been elected by the people of the state of California and by them alone. Those who have made politics their profession did not support me either in the primary or general election. Therefore while taking office on a platform that calls for elimination of the old machine, I do not assume duties as governor with a horde of job-hungry waiting for me to let down the bars and fill up the trough.

COOPERATION EXPECTED.

"I expect full cooperation from the legislature in carrying out my economy and efficiency program. The complaint has been made sometimes in the past that the executive branch of government in California has sought, and at times has accomplished, usurpation of the rights of the legislative branch. Such procedure is contrary to my conception of the proper function of government.

"I believe the people are best served when the governor and the legislature work harmoniously together. I shall do my part to see that harmony exists. As governor I shall endeavor to retain my touch with the people and use the powers of my office for the public good, and when I go out of office I shall retire with promises fulfilled and with service well rendered—so far as lies in my power. I shall need your help continually and consistently and I realize that I shall receive that help only in the measure in which I shall merit it. I am willing that it should be so."

That kind of talk sounds good and the people will back the governor up in all his undertakings. Woe unto the legislator who tries to balk these plans of economy and efficiency.

It will be refreshing to find a man in the governor's chair who intends to make good his campaign pledges. Friend is starting out all right and if he keeps that lick up, he is good for two terms right now.

The unofficial returns show that Richardson was elected by over 211,000 majority over Woolwine. He also received 3850 more votes than Hiram Johnson received for United States Senator. More than 87,000 people voted for governor than did for senator, which shows that there was more interest in the Richardson campaign than in any other.

A number of the friends of Senator Johnson have organized a Theodore Roosevelt club to keep alive the ideals of the famous ex-president. The club is organized for the purpose of boosting Johnson for the presidential nomination in 1924. Clubs will be organized in other states in the West with the same idea in view.

The friends of Governor Stephens are going to make an effort, it is stated, to have the governor appointed to one of the new federal judgeships that has recently been created. The governor should call these men off. As governor he kept the judiciary on a high plane by appointing only experienced judges or able lawyers to the bench. The governor was only recently admitted to the bar and has never practised law or acted in a judicial capacity and could not be expected to become eminently qualified for the position in such a short time. He is a very capable man in many respects and should be placed in a position that he would at once be capable of filling. He should be put in charge of the prohibition enforcement forces, a position that he could fill with credit to himself and honor to the state.

FARMERS' CLUB INSTITUTES UNIQUE SELLING CONTEST

The Ukiah Farmers' Club is instituting a contest of much interest to the boys and girls of Ukiah. A valuable prize will be given to some one of the young folks, details of which will be found in the special advertisement elsewhere in this issue of the Dispatch-Democrat.

The prize is to be given in a contest for the distribution of Columbia flour, a product of the Astoria Flouring Mills Co., for which this firm is the local distributor. Columbia flour is milled from blue stem and dichlo semi-hard wheat in a new mill of the Astoria company, which is said to be the largest on the coast and the finest in America.

The prize, a gold watch, is to be given to the boy or girl who places the most Columbia flour in homes between now and December 23. If a boy, he will get a 15-jewel watch, 25-year guaranteed case; if a girl, she will get a wrist watch of the same value. The watch will be purchased from the Joseph Jewelry Co.

No definite amount is required to win the prize—the girl or boy who sells the most will get it. No one connected with the distribution of Columbia flour is elegible to enter the contest.
